 BEST of the INLAND EMPIRE

Sept. 2020

Southern California's Inland Empire continues to offer countless attractions, businesses and services for residents. The 25th year of the Press-Enterprise Annual Readers' Choice Awards highlights the community's top picks in dozens of categories, including entertainment, insurance, restaurants, shopping and more.

Mercury Insurance is proud to be included on the "Best of Inland Empire 2020: Hometown Favorites, North" list for Best Insurance Provider. This is the first year Mercury has been awarded this distinction.

"Our goal has always been—and always will be—to provide our customers with exceptional service," said Mercury Insurance President and CEO, Gabriel Tirador. "I'm very pleased that this tireless dedication to our customers has been recognized by The Press-Enterprise readers and I want everyone to know that Mercury will be here when we're needed most."

Founded in Los Angeles in 1962, Mercury has been dedicated to protecting its customers, their families and their property by providing the best service and protection at the lowest possible rate.

Mercury Insurance is one of the leading insurance providers in its home state of California, and makes a continual effort to provide Southern Californians with top-tier service.
